Skill Development:

Unit 1 : L'introduction à la langue Française:

Conjugation battleship: Create a grid with different subject pronouns and verbs. Students take turns conjugating the verb correctly for the given subject pronoun and marking their opponent's grid.

Noun gender charades: Write masculine and feminine nouns on small cards. One student picks a card and acts out the noun without speaking, while the other students guess the gender and the noun.

Number bingo: Create bingo cards with random numbers in French. Call out the numbers in French, and students mark the corresponding numbers on their cards.

Days of the week song: Teach students a catchy song that helps them memorise the days of the week in French.

Family tree: Have students create a family tree diagram and label the relationships using possessive adjectives (e.g., mon père, ma sœur, etc.).

SALUT!

1. Conduct a “meet and greet” Activity where students walk around the classroom and engage in conversations with their classmates, practicing greeting, introduction and apologies.
2. Alphabet game
3. A) gender categorization

B) Number dictation

Listening and Speaking Activities: Incorporate listening comprehension activities that involve audio recordings or videos of native speakers using greetings, making contact, self-introduction, and apologising. Encourage students to listen actively and mimic the pronunciation and intonation. Provide opportunities for pair or group discussions where students can practise using the targeted communication objectives

Oral Assessments: Conduct individual or group oral assessments where students demonstrate their ability to understand and respond to greetings, introductions, apologies, and instructions. Assess their pronunciation, fluency, and accuracy in using the appropriate expressions and phrases.

Unit II:ENCHANTÉ!

1. Pair interviews
2. Filling out bank check
3. Preparing short message and reminders
4. Create a survey or interview for the classmates

Course Focussing on Cross Cutting Issues:

Title of the Course : Foundation Course: Paper I

Semester : I

Course Code : FU231FL1

Human Values:

Discuss the importance of effective communication in building positive relationships

Emphasise the values of respect, patience, attentiveness, and cooperation.

Encourage students to celebrate diversity and multiculturalism in different languages and cultures.

Gender Equity:

Promote gender-inclusive language and greetings

Encourage students to avoid gender-based assumptions or stereotypes when interacting with others.

Discuss the importance of equal opportunities for self-expression and respectful communication, regardless of gender.

Professional Ethics:

Discuss the importance of maintaining professional boundaries and treating others with respect and professionalism.

Discuss the ethical considerations of sincere apologies and accepting responsibility for one's actions.

Explore professional communication norms, such as using appropriate language, maintaining eye contact, and demonstrating active listening skills.

Activities related to Cross Cutting Issues :

Role Play

Divide students into pairs or small groups.

Assign each group a specific greeting scenario (e.g., meeting friends, greeting a teacher, meeting a new colleague).

Instruct students to role-play the greetings while emphasising respect, kindness, and inclusivity.

After the role-play, facilitate a discussion about the importance of positive and respectful greetings in building relationships and promoting inclusivity

Cultural Exchange

Assign each student a different culture or country.

Instruct students to research and prepare a short presentation on the greetings, introductions, and apologies commonly used in that culture.

Have students present their findings to the class, discussing cultural differences, similarities, and the importance of adapting to different customs.

Facilitate a class discussion on how understanding and respecting cultural norms contribute to effective communication and building relationships

Language Context Analysis

Provide students with written dialogues or scenarios where the choice between "tu" and "vous" is relevant (e.g., a customer interacting with a salesperson, a student speaking with a professor).

In pairs or small groups, have students analyse the context of each dialogue and discuss which form of address (tu or vous) would be appropriate.

Encourage students to reflect on the importance of using respectful and inclusive language, considering factors such as age, social status, and professional settings.

Assignment:

Preparing invitation card
