Crossian Research Forum

The Crossian Research Forum is the Executive Committee of Crossian Centre for Research and Development (CCRD). It comprises key members, including the Principal, Dean of Research, Research Coordinator, one faculty member with a Ph.D. from each department and Scholars representatives from Arts and Sciences. This committee plays a crucial role in fostering a vibrant research culture within the institution. Its duties encompass conducting internal and external reviews of articles for the multidisciplinary, biannual, peer-reviewed Journal of our College "Crossian Resonance", ensuring quality and relevance in research outputs. The committee is also responsible for data collection and filing related to Department Research Activities, facilitating systematic documentation of research efforts. Additionally, it undertakes member scrutiny for incentives, endowment prizes, the best researcher awards, recognizing and celebrating exceptional contributions. The committee acts as the organizing team for seminars, conferences, workshops and research colloquia organised by Crossian Centre for Research and Development (CCRD), enriching the academic environment with diverse learning opportunities. Furthermore, it oversees the execution of activities within the Crossian Centre for Research and Development, ensuring that research initiatives align with the institution's strategic goals and foster innovation and excellence.
